Chas Gill on DKE's Sunday night clean-ups, the value of brotherhood, and his thriving CBD business

Chas Gill '82 says that he became a DKE for many reasons. "Kenyon's social scene relied on social groups to provide for social gatherings, and I wanted to be part of that. Many of my fellow freshmen who I had bonded with also became members. Lots of memories — grilling a side of beef off the patio, the weekly parties. Oddly for me, I loved the Sunday clean up."

Thank you to our generous donors!

Alumni support is the heart and soul of our fraternity, giving our active chapter a strong foundation and reminding our alumni volunteers that their efforts are paramount. Your gift fuels our commitment and sets an important example for our alumni brotherhood. If you haven't donated yet this year, would you consider making a gift this month and join those who are on our Honor Roll?
